

Ash Scholz

Ash is President of the Edinburgh University Students' Association for the 2025/2026 Academic Year. As President, they work on behalf of the 49,000 students at the University of Edinburgh to give them a voice at the highest levels of the institution. In addition to sitting on University Court, they sit on the University Executive and numerous other committees and strategy groups to represent students, their needs and the issues affecting the student experience.

Ash's main priorities for their term revolve around improving the student experience, particularly protecting students in the light of cost-of-living crisis, and University finances, alongside amplifying the voices of underrepresented student cohorts through democracy measures.

Ash has recently completed their MA (Hons) in History and Politics. They also volunteer for Amnesty International UK as Chair of the Rainbow Network.
