

Hugh Mitchell

Hugh Mitchell was Chief HR & Corporate Officer of Royal Dutch Shell from 2005 to 2016 as part of a 37 year international career with the energy company. His experience included global responsibility for Real Estate, External Communications, Health, Security, and International Government Relations.

Hugh is a globally recognised HR leader and has served on the Boards of The Centre for Advanced Human Resources (Cornell University), Edinburgh Business School (HWU), and the IMD Business School (Lausanne). He was also a Non Executive Director of RSA Insurance (London).

Hugh is currently Chair of the Port of Cromarty Firth and guest lectures at London Business School and Edinburgh University Business School.

Hugh is a Graduate of Edinburgh University where he studied History.

Register of Interests

Committee Memberships

- University Court
- Exception Committee
- Policy & Resources Committee
- Remuneration Committee (Convener)
- Nominations Committee
- Court USS Sub-Group