

Kavi Thakrar

Born and raised in the UK, Kavi began his career as an investment analyst for the International Finance Corporation in Washington, DC. Kavi returned to London in 2008 to join his family business, Tilda Rice. In 2010, he co-founded Dishoom, an Indian restaurant group. The company has won numerous accolades, including ranking 4th in the Sunday Times Top 100 Places to Work, Best Restaurant in the UK (two years in a row), Best Learning and Development in Hospitality, Most Admired Brand, Restaurateur of the Year, Best Small Restaurant Group, and many more.

In addition, Dishoom has been a leader with its Meal for a Meal initiative, donating a meal to a hungry child for every person who dines at Dishoom, which is helping to feed schoolchildren in the UK and India.

Kavi also serves as a Board Trustee at the American School in London.

Register of Interests

Committee Memberships

- University Court